Project Description:

AWEHE is a community not a corporation, we do have nonprofits that are set up to conduct nontaxable programmes which are educational in nature and are considered non-ceremonial gatherings in context. Our community has a strong oral tradition of knowledge transfer which is woven into these offerings.

(Note: To give a clear context in advance of your engagement or physical visit, when we refer to Dolphin Head within our AWEHE materials, we are talking about the original entrance that our ancestors used in Askenish (a place of rivers, where they caught fresh water). This is different to the constructed path that was created in Kingsvale in recent years.)
